Re: Recommendation Letter

Dear Mr. Galido:

Thank you for being an ambassador of hope for foster youth throughout the world. Last year, you completed forty hours of service to youth at-risk as a dedicated volunteer. Such devotion has permitted our organization to provide a new identity to the face of foster children, elevating the expectations of youth in care.

When Positive Resistance asked individuals within the community to assist us in defending the belief that nothing is final for foster teens, you heeded to the call without hesitation. Our organization thrives on a variety of various contributions, our board and I especially recognize all that you have done.

Furthermore, I invite you to share in what will be an especially poignant year for our youth.

Sincerely,
